TECHNICAL RESOURCES

Specialized documentary collection

The research topic from 2008 to 2011 is History of Collective Affiliations, organized along three main directions:

- Identification of social and institutional affiliations: judicial and political backgrounds, identities under construction.
- Social expressions and representations of identities and of collective affiliations: signs and rituals, demonstrations, public meetings, shows, markets, social structures.
- Practices, perceptions, feelings and search of collective affiliations.

Within the framework of Collective Affiliations, which unite all the researchers of the Center, two thematic groups cover both Medieval and Ancient Times Studies:

- Ancient Times: POIKILIA team (interactions between cultures in Italy, Egypt, North Africa)
- Medieval Era: PraThéMa group (political theory and practices, social organization and Justice system in Medieval Times)
