

Bank Colloquium for Junior Researchers: The Future of Bank Regulation

Date: June 28, 2017

Call for Papers

The aim of the Colloquium is for junior researchers in Banking (PhD candidates or young scholars) to benefit from feedback about present and future research work from mentors who are leaders in their field.

Junior Researchers who are in their last year of PhD program or scholars who have recently (last 3 years) acquired their PhD degree can apply for either

1/ long presentation sessions (30 minutes)

or

2/ short presentation sessions (5 minutes).

First or second year PhD candidates can only apply for short presentation sessions in which they will briefly summarize their accomplished or in progress work.

Preferred Topics: Bank Risk and Regulatory Implications (Basel III and IV, Bank Supervision, Enforcement), Financial Stability, Systemic Risk, Liquidity Risk, Capital and Liquidity, Failure Resolution and Total Loss Absorbing Capacities), Capital Structure, Ownership Structure and Governance in Banking (Risk and Efficiency Implications), Bank Market Structure, Competition, and Lending Behavior.

Submission deadline: May 21, 2017

Registration deadline : June 15, 2017

Venue: Université de Limoges, LAPE, Limoges, France

Scientific Committee: Robert DeYoung (University of Kansas), Iftekhhar Hasan (Fordham University) and Amine Tarazi (Université de Limoges)

Organizing Committee: Emmanuelle Nys (Université de Limoges) and Amine Tarazi (Université de Limoges)

Submissions (completed papers or proposals) should include a CV and be sent in pdf format as a single file to LAPE-Colloquium2017@unilim.fr

Registration fees for the selected speakers include lodging (2 nights), meals and coffee breaks (welcome dinner, lunch, morning break, afternoon break, closing dinner).

All information available on <http://www.unilim.fr/lape/research/workshop-2017-34/>

